Information on personal data processing

The Joint Programming Initiative on Antimicrobial Resistance, JPIAMR, is hosted by Vetenskapsrådet (the Swedish Research Council). In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679, and applicable national legislation, Vetenskapsrådet provides the following information on the processing of your personal data.

Purpose and lawfulness

The personal data is collected to enable Vetenskapsrådet to issue invitations to and conduct conferences and events, for purposes such as communication, information and administration. Your consent constitutes the lawfulness of processing your personal data.

Storage of personal data and data protection

Vetenskapsrådet uses an electronic booking system for its registration procedure for conferences and events. The personal data is erased from the booking system within six months after the conference or event. Data collected for invoicing purposes are stored according to the provisions of bokföringslagen (the Swedish accounting Act [1999:1078]).

If Vetenskapsrådet wishes to have the option to store your email address in order to send information on future conferences and events, this shall be clearly stated on the registration form and be voluntary. The email address will be stored at Vetenskapsrådet for as long as the consent lasts, or at most for two years.

Vetenskapsrådet takes relevant and sufficient measures to safeguard the data according to current applicable regulations.

Rights of the data subject

You have the right to have incorrect personal data rectified, and the right to have incomplete personal data completed. You also have the right, under certain circumstances, to have data erased or to object to the processing of your personal data. Furthermore, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.

Controller and data protection officer

Vetenskapsrådet, vetenskapsradet@vr.se, telephone number +46 8 546 44 00, is the controller responsible for the processing of your personal data. Vetenskapsrådet has a data protection officer, who can be contacted via dataskyddsbudet@vr.se or by telephone on +46 8 546 44 031.
