

National AMR research program

Country: Germany

National strategy in line with the WHO global action plan; Ministries of Health, Food and Agriculture, and Education and Research; Goals: Strengthening the One Health approach nationally and internationally, Recognising changes in resistance at an early stage, Retaining and improving therapy options, Breaking chains of infection early and avoiding infections, Raising awareness and strengthening skills, Supporting research and development

National research calls and year

Institutional funding and project funding in several funding initiatives. Germany has no explicit funding scheme on AMR, but applications are possible in several measures like drug research, infection research, etc. International activities like GARDP, CEPI, EDCTP.

National coordinate structure

Inter-ministries working group